"Consumption runs in our family, and through it I lost my mother,' writes E. B. Reid, of Harmony, Me. For the past five years, however, on the slightest sign of a Cough or Cold, I have taken Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which has saved me from serious lung trouble. A' His mother's death was a sad loss to Mr. Reid, but he learned that lung trouble must not be neglected, and how to cure it. Quickest relief and cure for coughs and colds. Price 50c and $1.00; guaranteed at J. C. Perry's drug store. Trial bottle free.

The charred remains of an unknown man were discovered in a smouldering fire near the railroad track just a mile north of Glendale Monday evening. From the evidence it is supposed that it is murder, but there is a deep mystery surrounding the affair. No one can be found who can identify the unfortunate man.

A run into the country Sunday howed the region north of Salem giving promise of splendid crops. The country about Lake Labish is showing up to splendid advantage. The plan to drain the marshes and meadows north towards Parkersville is slowly maturing. The finest winter wheat we saw was a piece on the M. L. Jones place. Mr. Jones said it was the old-fashioned winter wheat, and it stood a foot high, and was thick and rank and dark green. He has a field of oats about as good. The grain is on land that has been restored with two years in timothy and
